Too much stuff in your space? Whether you WANT to scale down or HAVE to, the process is seldom easy. Even clearing someone else's 'stuff' can be emotional and time consuming, especially if that someone is a family member.

The authors of Scaling Down, Living large in a Smaller space, state the issue clearly: "...just getting rid of possessions and scaling down physically is not enough. In order to be successful, you need to have a direction, a positive goal."

Too many clothes, dishes, too much paper, or just too much 'stuff': downsizing and clearing the clutter requires not only time, decision making energy, but also a plan and destination.
